JENUI 2018 (XXIV Jornadas sobre Enseñanza Universitaria de la Informática) is promoted by the Asociacion de Enseñantes Universitarios de la Informática (AENUI) and organized by the Faculty of Computer Science, Multimedia and Telecommunications of the Universitat Oberta de Catalunya (UOC).

The aim of JENUI is to promote contact, exchange and discussion of knowledge and experiences among computer science instructors and research groups. Debates about degree contents, pedagogical methods and innovative approaches will be aimed to improve the teaching of computer science in universities.

JENUI is organized through papers, posters and demonstrations of teaching resources, as well as debates and other activities that encourage personal contact between teachers.
